Breaking open the Word

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection

The Kingdom of God is at hand but the laborers are few. However, Jesus continues to call men and women to radically follow him. In every age, Jesus summons individuals to perpetuate his words and sacraments in order to remain with his disciples till the end of the age. It is counter-cultural to live a life as a priest, religious brother, or sister in our society but this life remains to have the most satisfied members. In today's Gospel, Jesus sends the 72 out for ministry. When they returned, they rejoiced for what they had accomplished. Jesus tells them that the greater joy comes from the cooperation with God to work out our salvation.

Every one of us has the right and duty to promote and encourage religious vocations. Jesus says that to get more workers in the harvest of the Lord, we must pray. This week, let us pray for our priests, religious, consecrated, and seminarians. If you know someone considering this vocation, support him or her. Sometimes it takes another to realize one's calling...

Seminarian-in-residence*

Fourteenth Week of Ordinary Time

We continue with the final week of a three-week cycle of Genesis readings. Jacob stops for the night and has a vivid dream about a stairway to heaven and the Lord telling him that the land on which he rests would be given to Jacob and his descendants. Jacob wrestles with a stranger in the night and is blessed by that stranger before they part.

The readings then jump ahead nine chapters to pick up the familiar story of the famine and Joseph, Jacob's son who has been sold into slavery by his brothers. Joseph is now a powerful man in Egypt managing food in a starving world, and his brothers are sent by their father to Egypt to beg for food. Joseph meets with his brothers, finally reveals himself to them and is reunited with his now-elderly father, Jacob, who comes to Egypt. Jacob dies a happy man, asking only that his family take his body back to their homeland for burial. The readings end as Joseph dies in Egypt, also asking to be buried in the land of his birth. It's a great story of God's fidelity.

Matthew's gospel this week is filled with healing and invitations. Jesus offers a cure and courage for the woman with hemorrhage, raises an official's daughter from dead and as "his heart was moved with pity" he continues to cure every disease and illness. Along with these stories of healing in the First Gospel, the call from Jesus begins.

*The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few;
so ask the master of the harvest
to send out laborers for his harvest*

Jesus summons the apostles and sends them out to continue his work, but curing illness and driving out unclean spirits. He tells them how to be a laborer in his field and cautions them of the challenges ahead. On Saturday, he offers a tender example of God's love for us in the story of God's love for even the lowly sparrow. "Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows," he concludes.

Daily Prayer

All week, we can try to be conscious of how our day-to-day work is part of our call from the Lord: to be an agent in the world for good, to make products, to offer goods and services to people, to coordinate human activities, to protect and defend others' rights, to heal others. Some of us are still available to be called to a specific work or ministry. This is a great week to ask for openness. Every one of us can find great meaning and deeper peace in placing what we do in the pattern of our response to God's call to us, through Jesus. When we do our work, we can thank the Lord for this work; ask to do it faithfully, lovingly, compassionately and justly. Some of us are struggling to find work that offers us dignity and a living wage. We can ask the Lord to send us to be his servants, with our gifts, and trust in his fidelity.

As we move through the week, growing in our relationship with the Lord all week, as we make these more-conscious background moments of insight, recognition and connection, we can give thanks and trust that if we scatter his seed, with trust and with abandon, we don't have to worry. The harvest has his guarantee of abundance.

Damien statue by Maui artist

We are seeking to commission a bronze outdoor statue of St. Damien by Maui artist Gary Thomas. The statue, "Damien...Through the Spirit," is a depiction of Father Damien, who gave of himself physically and spiritually to care for those banished to Molokai because they had Hansen's Disease. In addition to the adults, he cared for the orphaned, banished and forgotten children. We are seeking donations to help us obtain the statue, which will be placed in a meditation garden. To donate or for more information see Fr. Lane.

Vatican II and lay ministries

A special ministers meeting and instruction will be held on Monday July 22 at 6 p.m. in the church. All lay ministers are required to attend as part of our "Year of Faith" enrichment. This session is open to all parishioners as well. Alfred Guerrero, our diocesan seminarian in residence, will be the presenter at this meeting/instruction.

Bishop Larry's teaching Mass

Bishop Larry Silva will provide basic teaching on sections of the Mass and the meaning of those sections from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Tuesday July 9 at Holy Trinity Church. The Mass, as worship, is designed to give praise to God. To understand what the Mass is about, it is important that we understand what it means for the people in the pews to be active participants in the Mass and what the role of the presider is. As active participants, we are called to attentively listen to the readings and homily and reflect upon their meaning in our lives. We are called not to just watch as the priest presides. As presider, the role of the priest is not to do everything himself. Rather, the presider leads the people as they offer their worship. Come and share in this blessing; Holy Trinity is opening this teaching Mass to all the people in this vicariate.

Faith Formation

Living in the Spirit, growing in faith

Each month, St. Augustine offers parishioners and visitors an opportunity to gather to reflect on faith and being attuned to God's presence in our daily lives.

Fr. Ken Templin S.M. leads our gathering as we spend time with a classic of spiritual reading. This month, we will begin another book, Henri Nouwen's "Here and Now: Living in the Spirit." In this book of meditations, Henri Nouwen tells us how God is close to us in our daily lives, much closer than we usually realize. He writes about joy in our sorrow, about friendship and family, about prayer, about forgiveness, compassion, discipleship, discipline, and conversion.

Spend some time nurturing your faith and join us for prayer, reflection and faith sharing at 7 p.m. Monday, July 15 in the Damien Meeting Room. All are welcome. Copies of "Here and Now" are available for purchase in the parish office.
