Breaking open the Word

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection

The parable about Zacchaeus is an interesting story. He was a tax collector, a wealthy man and his hands were not clean. But the great thing about Zacchaeus was that he was not afraid to seek Jesus. He heard about Jesus and wanted to meet him but he was a short man and could not see him because of the crowd. He ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree. He set aside his dignity and pride because he wanted to see Jesus.

We all are like Zacchaeus — not perfect people. There is nobody in the church who is without sin. It is important for us who have done wrong to change, to say that we are sorry and to continue seeking God for His forgiveness. If you are seeking God, so are we. I invite you to consider re-affirming your Catholic identity and joining with us in seeking God together.

The story of Zacchaeus invites all of us to never stop seeking God in our lives. We can support and encourage each other to hold fast to the truth that God is always acting to lead us, guiding us to have a better life with Him.

Fr. Lusius Nimu ss.cc.

Stewardship envelopes for 2014

As good stewards of what is given to us, we must be also good stewards in preserving creation. Paper items must be used appropriately and as we prepare for 2014 we will make a change in how our stewardship envelopes are given out.

To comply with charitable giving for tax purposes, a person must give a minimum of $250. After looking at our records, those who do not meet that minimum for annual giving will not receive envelopes for 2014. We suggest that you use a plain envelope with your name on it; you will be responsible for tracking your own gift-giving. Therefore, for those who give above the minimum, your assigned number may change.

Stewardship envelopes will be available in early December. If you have any questions, please contact the parish office. Mahalo for your understanding and patience.

All Souls Day remembrances

Throughout November, we will pray for deceased members of our parish community, our benefactors and family members. All Souls envelopes are available at the church entrances. Write down the names you want remembered and place your offering in the envelope and drop it in the collection basket.

Olive wood religious items

Carved olive wood religious items from Jerusalem will be available for purchase after all the Sunday Masses and the Saturday evening Mass this weekend. The sale of these items helps to support Christians in the Holy Land.

Food drive for Our Lady of Kea'au

We are collecting nonperishable food items and toiletries through Thanksgiving to support the Outreach Ministry at Our Lady of Kea'au. We have supported the Franciscan Sisters who operate this outreach ministry for several years. Drop off your nonperishable food items and unopened toiletries in marked boxes in the church.

Stewardship

Our daily and Sunday collections

As good stewards, we are grateful to our God for his many blessings, and in gratitude we share with those who are in need. The collection at Sunday AND daily Mass is a part of our liturgy, not apart from it, and is a sign of our willingness to give all that we have to the Lord for the maintenance of the church and the care of the poor. It is also expressive of what the Eucharist means in terms of our relationship with others. In the early Church, everyone brought up whatever they had brought, eggs, or produce or chickens or grain, or bread or wine. Some was used for the celebration and the rest was used for the benefit of the Church so that all were taken care of and no one was in need. Today, we share what we have with money. Our collection – daily and Sunday -- gives tangible support to our faith in action and to our thankfulness to our Creator.

Collection, week ending Oct. 27: $8,604.02

Disbursements week ending Oct. 27: $26,831.79

Parish assessment: $10,650.00

Damien statue by Maui artist

We are seeking to commission a bronze outdoor statue of St. Damien by Maui artist Gary Thomas. “Damien...Through the Spirit,” is a depiction of Father Damien, who gave of himself to care for those banished to Molokai because they had Hansen's Disease. We are seeking donations to help us obtain the statue, which will be placed in a meditation garden. To donate or for more information please see Fr. Lane.

Our musical termites

Termites have taken up residence in our organ and the damage is such that the organ must be replaced. The replacement cost is $100,000. If you might be interested in helping purchase this new organ, please contact Fr. Lane. Mahalo.
