Breaking open the Word

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Love of God and the Love of Neighbor are fundamental to having a good, peaceful, and joyful life in this world and the next.

It may sound like an ideal and not a realistic one, especially for those who are challenged by the many distractions in this world. A common challenge is that we have a difficult time putting someone else first before us. This selfishness is due to the survival instinct that we have, so it is somewhat understandable. But in doing so, we address only half of our life journey that pertains to this world and ignore the life that is to come after we die.

If one does not believe in the goodness of life now and after death, there is no need to read further in this reflection. But if there is any doubt, please continue to read.

True love is like a binding agent, connecting us to all that is good in life. It nourishes, strengthens, and gives us confidence to continue on the right path in life. It gives understanding and meaning to words like forgiveness, mercy, charity, caring, and sharing. It is pure joy in action and refreshing as a morning breeze. True love is given abundantly without cost and it binds us to God and each other. It provides a fulfilling richness that is incomparable in this world. To really know this, one must experience it. And to experience it, one must truly believe in God.

Take the time and make the effort to truly understand the Love of God and how each of us has been invited to be part of that love. It will bring you closer to Him and the world that He invites us to.

Deacon Andy Calunod

Daily Prayer

Please, Lord, anything but humility! Our instinctive reaction to humility might be the result of a culture that exalts riches, honors and pride. Yet all this week Jesus teaches that the way to salvation is through humility.

The first step might be simply asking for the desire to be humble. As we move through the simplest of moments in our everyday lives, we can stop and ask God to help us want to be humble. As we sit on the edge of the bed in the morning, as we head to work, sort laundry or do our errands, we can keep a running prayer in the background of our consciousness: “Lord, help me to desire the humility that will make me more aware of your saving grace.”

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

These same background moments offer ways for us to recognize opportunities to practice humility as we go through our days. Perhaps I can stop myself from correcting my spouse. In a disagreement, I might make an extra effort to listen to the other person's side rather than planning my rebuttal as they speak. I can let a person in line in front of me, hold the door for someone or make an extra effort to recognize and thank those who serve me. Even these tiny gestures, when done in the spirit of Jesus' teachings this week, offer us a special grace.

With the Solemnity of All Saints, we are reminded of all the women and men whose faithful living of the Gospel is so clear that we are sure we can imitate their lives. These are all the named saints. It would be great to name the saints whose example we desire to shape our lives. All Souls day gives us the opportunity to remember and pray for all our brothers and sisters who have died. We confidently hope and pray that they may be embraced by the love and mercy of God, poured forth in the life giving death and resurrection of Jesus. This is a wonderful day to name all those we want to pray for, and to include in our prayer those who have no one to pray for them.

Please lift up these prayer intentions during October:

Pope Francis Universal Intention: Workers and the Unemployed: That all workers may receive respect and protection of their rights, and that the unemployed may receive the opportunity to contribute to the common good.

For all those affected by natural disasters, hurricanes, earthquakes, forest fires: That people of good will respond to their needs and for the protection of first responders who render assistance.

St. Augustine Closet open Nov. 4

The Altar Rosary Society Closet will open on Saturday, Nov. 4 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Damien Meeting Room.

These are the sets that he has: Encyclopedia Britannica (11 books); New Catholic Encyclopedia (18 books); Catholic Encyclopedia 1908 (15 books). Two bookcases are also available for a donation. Please call the parish office if you are interested in any set.

Food drive for Our Lady of Kea'au

The outreach ministry of Our Lady Of Kea'au on the Waianae Coast weekly serves hundreds of hot meals to homeless individuals and families.

Again this year, as a part of our outreach ministry the parish of St. Augustine will be collecting nonperishable food items and toiletries to support the Outreach Ministry at Our Lady of Kea'au from Nov. 1 through Thanksgiving. This annual food drive brings home to us the very real needs of so many of our brothers and sisters. We have supported the Franciscan Sisters who operate this outreach ministry for several years. Drop off your nonperishable food items and unopened toiletries in marked boxes in the church beginning Nov. 1.

Shoe drive

We are assisting St. Michael's parish in Waialua in their drive to collect 25,000 pairs of shoes in a fundraising effort. If you want to help, donate used shoes in good condition. The shoes must be wearable (no holes or cracks) and have laces if applicable. No roller skates, rollerblades or ice skates. If you have shoes to donate, please call the parish office.

Join us for the Rosary in October

October is dedicated to the Rosary and throughout the month join us in praying the rosary one half hour before all the Sunday liturgies.

Priest appreciation weekend

October has been set aside for parishes to show their appreciation for the priests assigned to their parish. Many of us do not realize the effort it takes to operate a parish efficiently and in harmony with the people and God.

We are very fortunate to have had stability in our parish for more than 10 years with our pastor, Fr. Lane K. Akiona, ss.cc. His pastoral leadership has been experienced by parishioners and visitors who continue praise the church for its welcoming and moving experience. He has been supported by other priests, currently Fr. Benny Kosasih, ss.cc. and prior to that Fr. Lusius Niimu, ss.cc.

Join us this weekend after the masses to visit with Fr. Lane and Fr. Benny and enjoy the refreshments that will be served in their honor.

Weekly Scripture discussions

Our weekly Scripture Reflections are held at 5:30 p.m. Thursdays in the Annex Building. They are open to all who interested in deepening their knowledge of and appreciation for Scripture through reflection, discussion and study of the readings for Sunday.

Please bring a Bible with you or a printout of the readings for the following Sunday. Come and learn more about Scripture.

All Souls envelopes

All Souls envelopes are available in the sacristy for those who would like to have their loved ones remembered during the month of November.

Volunteers needed

As we prepare for the silent part of our Capital Campaign, we are looking for volunteers to help us.

If you are available and interested please contact the parish office and leave your contact information and email address. A training date will be set soon. Mahalo

Helping those who are hungry

This weekend's second collection will be for Aunty Carmen's Kitchen, which offers a free meal to those in our community who are hungry from 11 a.m. to noon weekdays. This long-time ministry of St. Augustine Church is supported through the generosity of parishioners and our many visitors. Mahalo for all that you do.

Veterans Day car wash

Many of the Knights of Columbus are veterans and they would like to wash your car on Saturday, Nov. 11, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Church parking lot. A wash is $9 per car, $11 per pickup and SUV. A combo (wash, vacuum, tire treatment and a bottle of water) is $13 for cars and $15 for pickups and SUVs. The Big Kahuna (all the above plus Armor All treatment in and out) is $18. The winner at our last car wash was Charles Dolan, who will receive a free Big Kahuna. Remember, God loves a clean car.
