Breaking open the Word

3rd Sunday of Easter

On this third Sunday of Easter we hear another account of Jesus appearing after the Resurrection among the disciples – disciples who were startled and amazed to see him, as Luke tells us. Jesus reminds them of what had been prophesied and then fulfilled through him “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.”

You are witnesses of these things. Those words are not just for the disciples of Jesus day, but for us as well. In our own Easter season, we, too, can be post-Resurrection disciples, witnessing his call to bring his message through our service and love all with whom we interact.

The way the disciples reacted after Jesus’ death and resurrection reminds us that Jesus chose very ordinary people to follow him. And it reminds us that we are also asked to be “witnesses” of his Resurrection in our own ordinary, everyday lives – in our struggles and in our dreams, in our simple tasks and in the complex, messy parts of our lives, in our joys and in our sorrows, in our challenges and in our achievements. It’s our “call to mission,” if you will. It’s a reminder to see that our vocation is to make what we are living – whatever the circumstances we find ourselves in – a life of selflessness and service to others.

Daily Prayer

This can be a good week to grow in a sense of and practice with the notion of being a “contemplative in the midst of action.” We have practically a week of gospels about Jesus’ gift of himself to us as the “Bread of Life.” This gives us the opportunity to let that mystery be in the background of our consciousness every day as we go about our everyday tasks. What makes it “contemplative” is that we will be asking for graces each morning, and we will let our desires and our activities interact.

We can begin reflecting upon how often we “work for food that perishes.” The pay-off, the success, the accomplishment, the reward we receive for what we do is often quite passing and unsatisfying. It would be important to be able to sense anything that appears to be food that doesn’t last and name it as such this week. The real food, the life-giving nourishment that our Lord offers us is himself. If we can’t celebrate the Eucharist daily this week, we can make what we used to call a “spiritual communion” simply by opening our hearts and desiring to receive our Lord, so that he remains in us and we remain in him. We can practice consciously choosing union with Jesus, our Risen Lord and only Savior, and experiencing how that would affect the choices we need to make throughout our day. If we begin each day, asking for the grace of this union, and renew the desire at brief moments we have at various times in the day, our focus and attention begins to change. We will experience a peace and a gifted lack of hunger and thirst for so many of the things that draw us away from him, from loving, from mercy, from consciousness on those in need.

We will do the crowning of Mary on Friday May 11 with a procession around the church at 4 p.m. with crowning and Mass to follow.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Lourdes Pilgrimage

Mahalo nui loa to all those generous stewards who gave toward my trip to Lourdes. Know of my appreciation for your generous gifts to make this trip possible for me.

It will be an opportunity for me to work with the malades (those who are challenged with medical or physical ailments) and their caregivers. There are three malades from Hawaii who will be going. It will be a wonderful opportunity for these malades to feel the healing spirit of Jesus.

Please keep us in your prayers, all 20,000 of us from various countries to provide service for the sick and poor.
