Breaking open the Word

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we reflect on today's gospel reading, our response would be the same as the disciples. By our own human nature, we desire recognition for who we are to the point of being served by others. That's the human environment we live in. Our actions are self-serving to preserve and enhance the life we have in this world.

Jesus introduces the disciples to something new as it pertains to God's Kingdom, to be of service not for our human rewards now but for the rewards in God's Kingdom. This is not easy to accept for the desire for power, wealth, and fame tugs constantly at everyone's ego.

However, if you are a practicing Catholic, your life is parallel with another journey, a journey in faith. Your faith journey is also a difficult one, because it conflicts with your human desires. It's almost like a test to see what you truly believe and your actions will illustrate your true beliefs.

Jesus stated the way to God's Kingdom is to follow the path He has taken, to serve and not be served.

Will you follow Him?

Deacon Andy Calunod

Daily Prayer

As Jesus continues to head toward Jerusalem in this week's readings, it can be easy to pray if we can focus. For simple thoughts and feelings to make their way into the background of our reflections this week we have to make a conscious choice to do it. Once we choose to let ourselves be reflective in this way, we can let this week's readings into our consciousness.

It becomes real when I realize that I am on the road with Jesus to Jerusalem in my life. I can sense the resistance in me to face all that it means. I resist the call to greatness that Jesus offers – to be a servant for others. Greed can take a serious role in my life – unconscious, of course, but once I experience how many things I “want,” I’ll sense the role of greed within me.

I see the potential for fruitfully connecting with my Lord throughout this busy week when I hear the call to be “vigilant” and to be aware of the “signs” of times today. Some days we can begin our days like getting on a treadmill and going all day. If I’m only attentive to what is immediately in front of me, I start to lose perspective. With reflection, I can see the “big picture” again and why I’m here and for whom I am responsible. Sometimes I’ll have the courage not to be a “peace at all costs” person, but will actually take steps, say things, come together with others to “set the earth on fire.”

Finally, perhaps this week I can simply get back in touch with being “called” and respond in a dozen simple ways, to thank the Lord for calling me and asking for the grace to be faithful.

We can prepare for Sunday later this week by begging our Lord to heal our blindness – our blindness to who we are and who we are called to be – and to follow him on the road to Jerusalem.

Dear Lord, sometimes I can be so dense. Thanks so much for getting through to me now and again. When I “get it,” it seems that I want to be your disciple with every ounce of being within me. I really get the “fire” image you use. At other times, all I see is my needs and the ways I seem to be unfulfilled or falling short in some way. Release me from myself, that I might be free to give myself to my brothers and sisters who need my love and care. Then, I’ll follow you into the toughest of situations with courage and hope.

Your help needed for Family Promise

St. Augustine Parish will partner with Holy Trinity Parish the week of Oct 21 to 27 in its Family Promise ministry. Family Promise is a nonprofit program in which faith communities across Oahu provide food and shelter for homeless families on a rotating basis.

Our parish will provide dinner on Saturday, Oct. 27, for the families who will be at Holy Trinity. Our Tongan youth and young adults participate by cleaning the home where the families stay before they arrive.

We are seeking the following donations:

Backpacks and school supplies, such as crayons, colored pencils, scissors, glue, markers, pencils, pens, erasers. Shampoo, conditioner, Ziploc bags and 10-ounce plastic cups.

Snack chips (the small bags).

Juice (in 2-gallon containers).

Ice cream.

Donations may be dropped off at the parish office during office hours.

If you would like to prepare food for the Oct. 27 dinner, please send email the parish office with information on what you will bring.

Food may be dropped off at the church at 4:45 p.m. Oct. 27 and we can deliver it to Holy Trinity.
