Breaking open the Word

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“I wish I ...”

The Diocese of Honolulu said farewell to one of its fine clergymen, Deacon Joaquin “Kin” Borja, who passed away a few weeks ago.

At his funeral last weekend, many of his Deacon brothers, myself included, reminisced about the good times we had with him. One of us mused, “Kin is smiling up there, seeing the church packed!” Another reflected, “His death was so sudden. I wish I made time to get together with him more often...” Everyone agreed.

I thought of Dcn. Kin when in today’s Gospel Jesus reminds us that we will not know the day nor the hour when Heaven and Earth will pass away. The seriousness of talking about the End Times ought to move us to reflect on a simple question, “Am I living correctly?” To answer this question, we can examine our righteousness. In other words, examine our relationships with God and our neighbor. The shared regret that we deacons had for not spending more time with our dear friend Dcn. Kin, is a good reminder to all of us that we should adjust how we live today, so that whenever that end time comes, we won’t have any “I wish I...” conversations with Jesus at the gates.

In any case, Jesus ends with the profoundly comforting, “my words will not pass away.” Brothers and sisters, yes, we understand that life ends. But Jesus promises us that those who believe in Him shall have eternal life in God’s Kingdom. Allow these words to fill us with comfort, hope and courage to face that final hour, whenever it arrives.

Daily Prayer

Making changes in our lives and the fear of making those changes are both themes in this week's gospels. Zacchaeus boldly reforms his life after he allows Jesus into it. The servant who is given a gold coin hides it in a handkerchief because he is afraid of his master. He has a chance to be given responsibilities but his fear keeps him from doing anything.

We are often afraid when we consider making a change in our lives. We can see habits that are not healthy, a benign neglect of those we love and patterns that are deeply set in our lives. We may know deep down that we want to change them but we don't have the confidence to believe we can do it. This week we are invited by Jesus to know that while we can't make those changes alone, we can if we allow Jesus to be with us in them.

Where do we start? With a small prayer. In those tiny pockets of time during our week, when we travel, ride to work, do dishes or even in the shower, we can take these reflective moments to ask for help. Just as Jesus asked the blind man, “What do you want me to do for you?” he is asking us the same question.

What do we want Jesus to do for us? Where do we want to make changes in the patterns of our lives? What changes are we afraid to make?

Dear Jesus, I ask for your help. Heal my fears. You have asked how you can help me and I am afraid to answer. I know what changes need to be made in my life but it seems overwhelming. Help me to open my heart to what you are asking - and to what I know I need. Be with me when I don't always know how to live in these new patterns and give me the humility to keep asking you for help over and over.

Let me feel your presence in my life. That will give me the strength and courage I need to live my life more faithfully.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

God of all blessings, source of all life,
giver of all grace:

We thank you for the gift of life:
for the breath that sustains life,
for the food of this earth that nurtures life,
for the love of family and friends
without which there would be no life.

We thank you for the mystery of creation:
for the beauty the eye can see, for the joy that the ear may hear, for the unknown that we cannot behold filling the universe with wonder, for the expanse of space that draws us beyond the definitions of our selves.

We thank you for setting us in communities:
for families who nurture us, for friends who love us by choice, for companions at work, who share our burdens,
for strangers who welcome us into their midst,
for people from other lands
who call us to grow in understanding,
for children who lighten our moments with delight,
for the unborn, who offer us hope for the future.

We thank you for this day: for life and one more day to love, for opportunity and one more day to work for justice and peace,

for neighbors and one more person to love
and by whom be loved, for your grace and one more experience of your presence, for your promise: to be with us, to be our God, and to give salvation.

For these, and all blessings,
we give you thanks, eternal, loving God,
through Jesus Christ we pray.
Amen.

Campaign for Human Development

Please respond to Pope Francis' call for the World
Day of the Poor the weekend of Nov. 18.

Please be generous in the second collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD).
In the United States, one in six people lives in poverty.
With this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and help vulnerable people across our country struggling to overcome poverty.

Here in Hawaii, CCHD has supported a wide range of projects, working with the most vulnerable, including HOPE Services Hawaii Inc., which has been instrumental in responding to the needs of the homeless and victims from the lava flow on the Big Island. Please remember that 25 percent of the collection proceeds stays in our diocese to hear and respond to the cry of the poor and some of the most vulnerable in our own islands.

Food drive for Our Lady of Kea’au

The outreach ministry of Our Lady Of Kea’au on the Waianae Coast weekly serves hundreds of homeless individuals and families. Again this year, as a part of our outreach ministry, the parish of St. Augustine will be collecting nonperishable food items and toiletries to support the Outreach Ministry at Our Lady of Kea’au through Thanksgiving. This annual food drive brings home to us the very real needs of so many of our brothers and sisters. We have supported the Franciscan Sisters who operate this outreach ministry for several years. Drop off your nonperishable food items and unopened toiletries in marked boxes in the church.

Thanksgiving turkeys needed

We are accepting donations of frozen turkeys for our Thanksgiving outreach, both for those individuals and families served by Our Lady of Kea’au and those served by Aunty Carmen’s Kitchen in our parish.

Frozen turkeys (no more than 12 pounds each) may be dropped off at Aunty Carmen’s Kitchen Mondays through Fridays between 11 a.m. and noon. Or you may drop them off at the parish office during office hours.
